MUDA 50:50 sites scam

ED finds proof of fraud in 14 sites to CM's wife

Benami allotments and dummy land-losers

One of Siddaramaiah's personal assistants wielded 'undue influence' in site allotment process: ED

Bengaluru, Dec. 4 (Agencies)- The Enforcement Directorate (ED) has uncovered significant irregularities in the transfer of 14 sites by the Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) to B.M. Parvathi, wife of Chief Minister Siddaramaiah.

The ED is investigating money laundering allegations involving Siddaramaiah, Parvathi, CM's brother-in-law B.M. Mallikarjuna Swamy and J. Devaraju, who sold 3.16 acres of land in Kesare (Sy. Number 464) to Mallikarjuna Swamy.

This land was later gifted to Parvathi, who secured 14 compensatory sites from MUDA in Vijayanagar Third and Fourth Stages under the controversial 50:50 scheme as MUDA did not follow land acquisition process at Kesare to form Devanur Layout.

Violations and tampering detected

The federal investigation agency, in a recent communication to the Karnataka Lokayukta Department, claimed its probe revealed that MUDA had illegally allotted a total of 1,095 sites through benami and other fraudulent transactions.

There was a "contravention of statutory guidelines" in the land transfer to Parvathi, with evidence of tampering, violation of office procedures, undue favour and influence and forgery of signatures.

Chief Minister Siddaramaiah

The agency also claimed to have found evidence that one of Siddaramaiah's personal assistants, S.G. Dinesh Kumar, alias C.T. Kumar, wielded "undue influence" in the process.

Widespread corruption in MUDA

The alleged illegal activities at MUDA "did not end" with Parvathi's case, as a total of 1,095 sites, valued at over Rs. 700 crore, were "illegally" allotted, according to the investigation report and official sources.

"Most of the allotments have been made in the name of benami or dummy persons in the guise of land losers. However, the beneficiaries of these illegal allotments are real estate businessmen and influential persons," the Enforcement Directorate probe found.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

NO EXCUSE FOR INACTION: While the Mahabharata talks about vidhi, it points out that we must not use vidhi as an excuse for inaction, elaborated P.T. Seshadri in a discourse. When Yudhishthira blames vidhi for the plight of the Pandavas, Draupadi tells him what the deva guru Brihaspathi had said about vidhi. A person who simply blames vidhi, and does nothing to change a situation, is an adhama among humans, and is akin to a mud pot which has not been properly burnt in a kiln. Just as such a pot will dissolve in water, so will such a man be destroyed. Draupadi wonders how Yudhishthira can take the insult to his wife so lightly.

The Pandavas send Lord Krishna as a messenger to negotiate with the Kauravas. They are prepared to settle for just five villages. Instead of seeking revenge for what the Kauravas did to Draupadi, they are thinking of land for themselves. Is Draupadi's modesty equal to just five villages? Pillai Lokachariar, in his Srivachana Bhushanam, says that the Ramayana is the story of Sita, not the story of Rama, and this is its significance. The essence of the Mahabharata is the role of Krishna, the messenger of the Pandavas. Draupadi laments to Krishna that the Pandavas have equated her dignity with five villages, and asks if this is fair. Pillai Lokachariar observes that when Draupadi wept, Lord Krishna felt that the Pandavas too, like the Kauravas, deserved to die. He spared their lives, because he did not want Draupadi to be widowed. He could easily have changed Duryodhana's mind and got him to agree to giving the Pandavas their share. But Draupadi had surrendered to Him and He wanted the insult to her to be avenged. That is why He ensured that His mission to the Kaurava court was unsuccessful. It was Krishna's intention that there should be a war. — In The Hindu

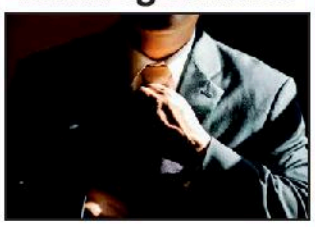
Executives to pay with lives for irregularities



Tokyo: Banking executives are always held to high ethical standards, considering that they handle the wealth of thousands, sometimes millions of people, but while they face serious punishment in case of fraud or embezzlement, they aren't quite expected to pay with their lives.

That is not the case with the management of Shikoku Bank, a financial institution whose top 23 executives, including President Miura, signed a blood oath requiring them to commit seppuku if found guilty of engaging in financial irregularities, embezzlement or other fraudulent activities.

Rooted in the code of honour of Japan's samurai era, the bizarre pledge posted on Shikoku Bank's website went viral sparking reactions varying from admiration to disbelief.

Seppuku is a type of ritual suicide that allowed samurai to uphold their honour after failing their lord. Employees of Shinkoku Bank's predecessor, the Thirty-Seventh National Bank, signed a similar pledge since its founding in 1878.

World's fastest humanoid robot

Beijing: Chinese robotics company Robot Era recently unveiled Star1, the world's fastest bipedal robot capable of reaching and maintaining speeds of up to 8 mph (12.98 km/h).

Developed by Robot Era, a Chinese robotics company, STAR1 is powered by high-torque motors and AI algorithms and can tackle all sorts of surfaces and environments, including sand and grassland.

Its advanced motors help the robot move efficiently, while high-speed sensors and communication modules let it process information about its surroundings in real-time, but what really helps put it above other bipedal robots in terms of speed is old-fashioned human footwear.

ULBs must issue e-Khatas in time-bound manner

Sir,

The crisis-ridden Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) has decided to transfer all allied services related to property and land to the jurisdictional Urban Local Bodies (ULBs) such as the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC), City Municipal Councils (CMCs), Town Panchayats (TPs) and Gram Panchayats (GPs).

It is important to note that now the ULBs will start fleecing the transferred property owners to get a new Khata from them.

The Government must mandate a streamlined, time-bound process for ULBs to issue e-Khatas to all property owners who previously held Khatas with MUDA and were regularly paying taxes.

Property owners must not be forced to endure bureaucratic hurdles, running from pillar to post to obtain their new Khatas, only to face another round of procedures for e-Khatas.

Civic organisations like the Mysore Grahakara Parishat (MGP) should step up and advocate for a hassle-free e-Khata issuance process, ensuring that the transition to ULBs does not become a source of inconvenience for property owners.

Additionally, MUDA must publish clear announcements in all Mysuru newspapers, listing the layouts and entities transferred to respective ULBs, TPs, or GPs. This transparency would greatly benefit the lakhs of site and house owners, ensuring that they are well-informed and prepared for this change.

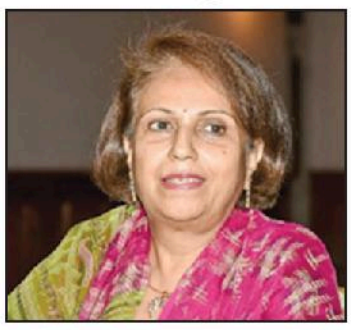
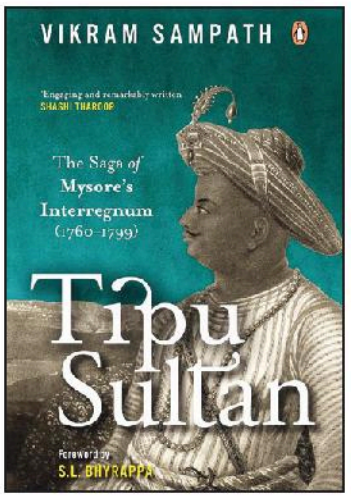
Launch of Dr. Vikram Sampath's magnum opus 'Tipu Sultan'



Pramoda Devi



Dr. Vikram Sampath

Mysuru, Dec. 4- 'Tipu Sultan: The Saga of Mysore's Interregnum (1760-1799),' a scholarly book authored by Bengaluru-based eminent historian Dr. Vikram Sampath, will be released by Pramoda Devi Wadiyar of Erstwhile Mysore Royal Family at Jaganmohan Palace on Dec. 5 at 6 pm. The book release event is being held under the aegis of Mysore Literary Forum Charitable Trust, The Foundation for Indian Historical and Cultural Research and S.L. Bhyrappa Sahitya Pratisthana.

Preethi Nagaraj, Writer and Theatre Person, will be in conversation with Dr. Vikram Sampath.

Meticulously researched, authoritative and completely grounded in primary and authentic sources, running into 3 lakh words and some 950-plus pages, this book opens a window to the life and times of one of the most debated figures from India's history.

Tipu's spirit and legacy continue to haunt India and its contemporary politics. Tipu, who was determined to obliterate every trace of the Wadiyar assumed complete sovereignty over Mysore, which became Sultanat-e-Khudadad or the Kingdom of God, and was its dictatorial Sultan. But Tipu was an astute administrator, a brave soldier and an innovator of rocket technology in India.

According to this book, Tipu's family of 600 women and 25 children were packed off to Vellore and then to Calcutta to fend for themselves, ending the House of Haidar Ali and Tipu Sultan that is marked as the "Interregnum Period" in the history of Mysore.

Dr. Vikram dwells on what sullied the legacy of Tipu Sultan and the manner in which contemporary political discourse has intruded into life of a historical figure. Tipu needs to be freed from the clutches of politics and left to academic study by historians. 'Tipu Sultan: The Saga of Mysore's Interregnum (1760-1799),' which has created waves across India, answers many intriguing questions.

Tiger menace: Combing operation begins in H.D. Kote

Forest Department personnel conducting combing operations to capture tigers at H.D. Kote taluk.

Mysuru, Dec. 4 (SBD&KS)- Following sighting of tigers in H.D. Kote taluk, which has created a sense of fear among the villagers, the Forest Depart is undertaking combing operations to capture the tigers.

On Tuesday morning, after receiving information about a tiger being sighted near Shanthipura and Bochikatte villages in the taluk, the Forest Department officials and staff conducted a combing operation during which they spotted pug marks.

In the afternoon, the tiger was spotted at Chakahalli village and after spotting pug marks in the village, Mysuru Division Conservator of Forests (CF), Mysuru Division Assistant Conservator of Forests (ACF), H.D. Kote Sub-Division ACF and staff, Special Tiger Task Force and Leopard Task Force personnel jointly conducted a combing operation.

A tigress and her two cubs have been moving around in this region and are frequently changing their place, hiding in maize and banana plantations. Hence, it has become a challenge to the Forest Department to conduct combing operations and capture them.

But still, the Forest staff are keeping a hawk eye vigil over the movement of the tigress and her cubs, besides taking precautions to prevent any untoward incident from taking place. The Forest Department has installed camera traps and network cameras besides using drones to keep a track on the movement of the tigress and her cubs. If necessary, domesticated elephants will be utilised to capture the tigress.

Case registered against private company for allegedly cheating Housing Co-operative Society

Mysuru, Dec. 4 (KS)- Saraswathipuram Police have registered a case against private construction company for allegedly cheating a Housing Co-operative Society to the tune of crores of rupees.

The Head of Sri Ramakrishna House Building Co-operative Society Mysuru South, is the one who has lodged a complaint against the Directors and officials of Skill Tech Engineers and Contractors. He has alleged that the private company, for the benefit of Society members, had promised to buy land and form sites for Society members and cheated the Society to the tune of crores of rupees.

In 2006, Sri Ramakrishna House Building Co-op. Society had entered into an agreement with Shivashankar, Arun Kumar and Veeresh of Skill Tech Engineers & Contractors to construct houses for Society members.

Accordingly, the private company had agreed to provide 30 acres of land in Survey No. 45 at Hanchya and develop 181 sites on the said land and the Society had deposited Rs. 14,67,04,434 to the private company.

But instead of 30 acres of land, the private company had purchased just 12 acre of land and formed only 90 sites for which the private company had collected an additional amount of Rs. 2,63,47,614 (Rs. 95 per sq. ft.) from the Society members.

When a notice was served to the private company to provide the remaining 91 sites, the private company had asked for some time but failed to provide the sites later.

In the meantime, the private company, without the knowledge of the Society, had purchased 6 acre and 28 gunta land in Survey No. 126 at Hanchya, formed sites and has sold the sites to others, the complaint stated.

Based on the complaint, Saraswathipuram Police have registered a case and are investigating.

Dattagalli site fraud

MUDA initiates process to reclaim 48 sites at Dattagalli Layout

Commissioner writes to MCC, District Registrar to halt any related processes, transactions for these sites

Mysuru, Dec. 4 (RK&BCT)-The Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) has initiated the process of reclaiming 48 sites in Dattagalli near Sri Ramakrishna Paramahamsa Circle, following the State Government's decision to revoke their illegal approvals.

MUDA Commissioner A.N. Raghunandan has formally written to the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) Commissioner and the District Registrar, instructing them to halt all registration and transaction processes related to these sites.

The revoked sites, spread across survey numbers 15/1, 15/2, 27/1 to 27/4, 32, 38/1, 38/2, and 41/2 in Dattagalli, were initially allocated to members of the Chamundeshwarinagara Sarvodaya Sangha.

MUDA had issued allocation letters and sale deeds for these sites. However, the approvals were deemed non-compliant with site allocation norms, prompting the State Government to cancel the allotments on Nov. 30.

This action follows a Government directive nullifying a resolution passed during the MUDA Board meeting on March 21, 2023, where 48 individuals were allocated sites despite legal prohibitions. Former MUDA Commissioner G.T. Dinesh Kumar allegedly misled the Board by concealing a Court order to secure approvals for these high-value sites.

Mysuru Deputy Commissioner and MUDA Chairman G. Lakshmikanth Reddy clarified that the March 21 meeting had no legitimate resolution for site approvals or sale deed registrations. "The allocation of these 48 sites was unauthorised, and a recommendation will be made to the Government to take action against those responsible for this illegal process," he said.

The MUDA Board, in a recent meeting, resolved to hold Dinesh Kumar accountable for his actions and recommend disciplinary measures to the Government. "Once the meeting's decisions are formalised, we will act accordingly," Reddy affirmed.

CM saved Rs.700 crore by cancelling 48 sites, claims Chamaraja MLA

Mysuru, Dec. 4 (BLU&DM)-Days after the State Government cancelled the allotments of 48 sites in Dattagalli Layout near Sri Ramakrishna Paramahamsa Circle, Chamaraja Congress MLA K. Harishgowda claimed that Chief Minister Siddaramaiah saved the Government Rs. 600 to Rs. 700 crore by cancelling the allotments.

Addressing a press conference at Congress Bhavan near the City Railway Station this morning, he stated that the 48 sites were located on a 27.34-acre area in Dattagalli Layout.

He pointed out that these sites were sanctioned to ChamundeshwarinagaraSarvodaya Sangha under a MUDA resolution passed on March 21, 2023, when Basavaraj Bommai of the BJP was the Chief Minister and S.T. Somasekhar was the Mysuru district in-charge Minister.

Harishgowda, who attended his first MUDA meeting on Sept. 6, 2023, said he and a few other MUDA members were unaware of several decisions made at the

March 21 meeting.

CM's advice on Govt. land

"I only came to know about these decisions later when I reviewed the proceedings at home on March 21, 2024. I noticed irregularities and immediately brought them to the attention of CM Siddaramaiah. He advised me to fight vigorously to save Government land," he maintained.

"Following this, I met the then MUDA Commissioner G.T. Dinesh Kumar, who expressed his helplessness, stating that the matter had already been decided in Court, and MUDA could not take action. Together with a few others, I wrote to the then Mysuru DC, Dr. K.V. Rajendra, urging him to convene a MUDA meeting, which he did," he explained.

"At the meeting, the DC mentioned that taking any action regarding the allotment would amount to contempt of Court. Despite our insistence on the irregularities, the meeting proceedings were not recorded. The matter was later taken to the Chief Minister, after which the BJP began making baseless charges against the Congress Government," MLA Harishgowda claimed.

Book FIR against those cheating MUDA: Snehamayi Krishna

Former MLC D. Madegowda seeks stringent system to curb frauds in MUDA land allocation

Mysuru, Dec. 4 (RK,BLU& BCT)- RTI activist Snehamayi Krishna has urged the Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) Commissioner to file a Police complaint against individuals who allegedly created fake documents to deceive MUDA.

He also called for immediate fencing and the installation of MUDA signboards on disputed lands in Dattagalli, covering survey numbers 15/1, 15/2, 27/1 to 27/4, 32, 38/1, 38/2, 40/1 to 40/3, and 41/1.

Krishna demanded action against 136 individuals accused of fabricating false sale deeds, posing as original land-owners and site buyers. He also named Veera Kumar Jain, who claimed ownership of these lands, as a key figure, demanding MUDA to book a complaint against him at Kuvempunagar Police Station.

Blaming MUDA officials for failing to act against fraudsters, Krishna highlighted that this negligence had emboldened similar fraudulent activities, causing substantial losses to MUDA. He pressed for immediate legal action to deter further scams.

Krishna Madegowda

Call for broader action

Meanwhile, former MLC and City Improvement Trust Board (now MUDA) Chairman D. Madegowda has demanded criminal proceedings against former MUDA Commissioner G.T. Dinesh Kumar, accusing him of playing a pivotal role in the Dattagalli site fraud.

Madegowda commended the Government's decision to revoke site allocations in Dattagalli but stressed the need for broader action. He called for the recovery of thousands of sites allocated under the 50:50 and other incentive schemes, urging strict action against officials, public representatives and real estate developers involved in corruption.

"If legal action isn't taken against those responsible, such scams will persist. It's a shame for Karnataka that a scam of this magnitude has occurred in the Chief Minister's hometown, forcing even the CM to appear before the Lokayukta for an investigation," Madegowda remarked.

ED sleuths grill Urban Development Secretary

Bengaluru, Dec. 4 (Agencies)-Deepa Cholan, Secretary of Urban Development Department, appeared before the Enforcement Directorate (ED) yesterday at its Office in Shanthinagar, Bengaluru, in connection with the MUDA 50:50 site scam.

The ED had issued a notice to Cholan at her office in Vidhana Soudha earlier this week, prompting her to arrive at the ED Office at 11 am. She was questioned for nearly eight hours, leaving the premises at 7 pm, after submitting relevant documents.

Sources said that the inquiry focused on MUDA's site allocation irregularities, specifically during Cholan's tenure as Secretary. Key questions revolved around the Department's awareness of the allocations, actions taken after allegations emerged, and meetings held with MUDA officials.

The ED questioned Cholan about the MUDA scam, Karnataka's most controversial land scams, involving high-profile individuals and systemic lapses in MUDA's operations. The ED also sought clarification on why no measures were implemented to halt questionable transactions if the Department was informed, sources added.

Scrutiny extended to allegations concerning Chief Minister Siddaramaiah's family, particularly the allocation of 14 sites to his wife, which were later returned.

Additionally, officials probed claims that hundreds of MUDA-related files were flown out of MUDA Office by helicopter under instructions from Urban Development Minister Byrathi Suresh.

The ED has retained the submitted documents for verification and hinted at the possibility of recalling Cholan for further questioning as the investigation progresses.

The ED, conducting a parallel investigation alongside the Lokayukta, has already recorded statements from several key figures, including former Mysuru DC and Congress MP from Raichur, G. Kumar Naik, former MUDA Chairman K. Marigowda, former MUDA Commissioners Dr. D.B. Natesh and G.T. Dinesh Kumar, among others.

Man tries to shoot Badal at Amritsar's Golden Temple

Amritsar, Dec. 4 (Agencies)-Bullets were fired this morning at the Golden Temple premises in Punjab's Amritsar where Shiromani Akali Dal (SAD) leaders, including party chief Sukhbir Singh Badal, are offering 'seva' under the religious punishments pronounced for them by Sri Akal Takht Sahib.

Police arrested the man who allegedly was attempting to shoot SAD leader Sukhbir Singh Badal. The shooter has been identified Narain Singh Chaura, allegedly a former militant, who faces many cases and has remained underground.

Sukhbir Singh Badal

Chaura belongs to Dera Baba Nanak area. Chaura, who crossed over to Pakistan in 1984, was involved in weapon smuggling and wrote a book on guerrilla warfare and "seditious" literature. He is also accused in notorious 2004 Burail jailbreak, where four inmates, including the assassins of former Punjab CM Beant Singh, escaped via a 94-foot tunnel. Chaura has been implicated in numerous cases across Punjab and has served time for various offenses.

The incident comes just a day after Badal began his guard duty at the Golden Temple, a punishment ordered by the Akal Takht for mistakes during the SAD-led government (2007-2017), which included incidents of sacrilege and the Kotkapura Police firing.

Alongside Badal, other Akali Dal leaders were assigned similar penances, with former Rajya Sabha MP Sukhdev Singh Dhindsa standing guard, and other leaders tasked with cleaning toilets and serving in the community kitchen.

Second coming of Donald Trump

He Promises to Make America Great Again.

Will Narendra Modi Make India Great Again?

Today no country in the world matters much other than America (US) in international trade, commerce, war and peace. Donald Trump, its President, is like an elephant in US politics that knows its strength. Which is why, he seems unpredictable to some.

He could become a war-monger or a peace-maker. We have seen that there was no war when he was the President of America between 20 January 2017 and 20 January 2021 and he even met that belligerent North Korean President Kim Jong Un across the Korean border's no-man's land.

Yes, Trump could boast during the 2024 Presidential election campaign that he would Make America Great Again. He could also claim that there was no war anywhere in the world during his first Presidency — 2017-2021. But soon after, when Joe Biden took over, two wars broke out — Ukraine and Gaza. Now even as he is biding his time to take Office on 20 January 2025, he has already warned Hamas to release the Israeli hostages before he took office saying there will be "hell to pay." Ukraine war may also see an end considering his cordial relation with Putin.

America is unlike any other country in the world. Those who have visited that country, studied its politics, economics and social milieu would know. No wonder even today America is the first choice for anyone to emigrate.

It is the world's only superpower. With the disintegration of Soviet Russia in 1991, the bipolar world became unipolar world with America as the only superpower. It is the land of affluence and opportunities that keeps beckoning to its shores thousands of persons ('tired and poor') from all over the globe who seek an opportunity to make it good in life. No wonder, my Indian friend in America tells me that he left India for his own good and also for his country's good ! Did you get me Steve?

American President-Elect Donald Trump and Indian Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

For India, Trump's return to power should augur well. The world knows that Trump claims our Prime Minister Narendra Modi as his friend. History records the advantages of having a strong, powerful country's King or President as a friend of a not-so-strong a country. We have seen this during our disastrous 1962 war with China that ended sooner than expected when America sent its Sixth Fleet Navy to Indian waters.

Modi has four more years in Office, so also Trump. So in the circumstances, our neighbours like Bangladesh, Pakistan and Maldives are sure to mend their inimical ways towards India and Hindu minorities in their respective countries. Trump would put that sinister America's Deep State (a clandestine network to destabilise foreign governments) under check and who knows this might enable Sheikh Hasina to return to Dhaka like Julius Caesar's triumphal return to Rome from Egypt or like Indira Gandhi's return to power in 1980.

Soon as Trump takes Office as President of America, we can expect the present anarchy in Bangladesh to end and the puppet President Muhammad Yunus replaced by Sheikh Hasina — like it happened in India in 1980. Who knows how the politics of a fanatical Islamic State will play out?

As for India, Prime Minister Modi should remember 1971 Bangladesh war, where India under a strong leader like Indira Gandhi saved Bengali Muslims from invading Pakistan army. Likewise, Modi must now go to save Bangladesh Hindus who are persecuted under puppet President Muhammad Yunus.

As for India, Donald Trump becoming the President of America opens up opportunities to settle issues with its hostile neighbouring countries. Prime Minister Modi with four more years in Office, while Trump too will be there for that period, must finish the unfinished job with our neighbours once and for all — Bangladesh and Kashmir. With Bangladesh, the issues are of illegal immigration and endemic persecution of Hindus. With Pakistan the issues are terrorism and PoK.

Consider this possible solution for the Bangladesh problem. Chittagong has 14% Hindu population and geographically contiguous to West Bengal and connected to Assam by rail. Many ask why didn't India annex the Chittagong and Cox's Bazar territories during 1971 war. This is one more failure of Indira Gandhi, after Kashmir, in the Peace Treaty known as Shimla Agreement signed in 1972 between India and Pakistan.

Looking at the perpetual persecution of Hindus in Bangladesh, some political Pandits opine India should immediately rush to rescue Hindus in that country either by negotiation or by other means and settle all the Hindus and other persecuted minorities in Chittagong under Sovereign Exchange of population. So that there will be no Hindus in Bangladesh to suffer persecution.

It is also a good prognosis that Trump has inducted a few Indian-Americans to top jobs in his Cabinet. This shows some Indian immigrants are great achievers in their own given profession and enterprise. It is propitious for India that Trump in his wisdom picked them for such high offices in his government. All said and done, blood is thicker than water and these Trump honchos with Hindu blood coursing through their veins will have a soft-corner while dealing with India and tough while dealing with India's enemies.

One of Trump's important pick was Kashyap Patel (Kash Patel) born in America to Indian Gujarati parents as FBI Chief. Another is Vivek Ramaswamy, Department of Government Efficiency and an American Hindu Tulsi Gabbard, Director of National Intelligence.

In retrospect, one can say providence has now offset Narendra Modi's diminished power in the Parliament by his success in the State elections in Haryana and in Maharashtra. Added to this is the success of his friend Trump as President of America which will empower Modi with Indradhanush.

As Osho Rajneesh says, sun is rising with all its glory and God has given you eyes. Modi must open his eyes, see the opportunity and seize it.

The Enforcement Directorate (ED) informed the Lokayukta that its investigation under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) revealed the 14 sites allotted to Parvathi were done "illegally" in "contravention" of statutory guidelines on site allotment.

Forgery and influence

It further stated that evidence of tampering, procedural violations, undue favour and influence, forgery of signatures and evidence tampering is evident from the investigation.

The ED stated that when the allotment was made to Parvathi, her son Dr. Yathindra Siddaramaiah was the MLA of the Varuna Constituency and a member of the MUDA Board. Siddaramaiah was the Leader of Opposition during this time.

The de-notification process of the said land lacked "any reasoning, deliberation or analysis of records," it noted. The probe revealed that the Chief Minister's Personal Assistant, S.G. Dinesh Kumar alias C.T. Kumar, exerted "undue influence" within MUDA, forging signatures and manipulating the allotment process in Parvathi's favour.

Contravention of statutory provisions

The sites were "illegally" de-notified based on "incorrect facts" and "under influence." Subsequently, the land was purchased by Mallikarjuna Swamy as agricultural land, "despite the fact" that MUDA had already undertaken construction and allotted sites before Devaraju sold the land to Mallikarjuna Swamy, the ED said.

The agency emphasised that the "contravention" of statutory provisions for site allotment in Parvathi's case was not an isolated incident. It highlighted a "deep-rooted nexus" among real estate businessmen, influential persons and MUDA officials to perpetrate this alleged land crime.

High-security bond papers missing

Searches conducted in the case uncovered that a "large number" (1,946 out of 5,000) of high-security bond papers, intended for issuing MUDA allotment letters, were "missing." The ED alleged that Prashant Raju, a personal assistant to former MUDA Commissioner G.T. Dinesh Kumar, withdrew these papers despite having no official role in issuing allotment letters.

"Investigations indicate these high-security bond papers may have been used to issue fraudulent allotment letters by G.T. Dinesh Kumar," the ED alleged.

Land conversion a sham

The agency informed the Lokayukta that the entire process for converting the 3.16 acres of land at Survey Number 464, Kesare, for non-agricultural purposes was a "sham" and not based on actual facts.

It pointed out that local revenue officials, including the Village Accountant, Surveyor, Revenue Inspector, Tahsildar and Deputy Commissioner conducted a spot inspection of the land but failed to report the construction work undertaken by MUDA at the site.

They falsely claimed that no unauthorised construction had been carried out, a statement contradicting the facts as seen in "satellite images" and MUDA records, the ED said.

The ED also noted that during the conversion proceedings, Siddaramaiah was the Deputy Chief Minister of Karnataka.

On application of whitener

The agency suspected "tampering of evidence," revealing that a compensation letter submitted to MUDA by Parvathi on June 14, 2014, had been altered using whitener, without any authentication of the change.

The ED found that the processing of Parvathi's file violated standard procedures, with the then MUDA Commissioner Dr. D.B. Natesh, personally selecting the sites for allotment. "The proposal for site allocation was not submitted by the site allotment section but was carried out directly by the Commissioner, indicating undue favour," the ED claimed.

The entire process of de-notification, land purchase and subsequent conversion for non-agricultural purposes was allegedly orchestrated under influence to secure possession of prime land at a layout being developed by MUDA.

This land was eventually gifted to Parvathi, who presented the illegally acquired property, obtained through influence, as "untainted" land obtained through a gift, the ED said.

Vijayendra lauds ED probe; doubts Lokayukta's integrity

Vijayendra

Kalaburagi, Dec. 4 (Agencies)- State BJP President B.Y. Vijayendra this morning said that the Enforcement Directorate (ED) investigation into the MUDA case has validated his party's stance that the scam extends beyond the irregularities involving 14 sites allocated to Chief Minister Siddaramaiah's family.

He pointed out that the preliminary ED probe has uncovered over Rs. 700 crore worth of irregularities and raised concerns about the Lokayukta Police's investigation into the matter.

"We have always maintained that the MUDA scam is not confined to the allotment of 14 sites to the CM's family. I had stated earlier that it's a scam worth hundreds of crores of rupees," Vijayendra said during a press conference in Kalaburagi.

He emphasised that his statement was no longer just an accusation, but a charge substantiated by the ED's findings. "The ED has conducted an impartial investigation, revealing irregularities worth more than Rs. 700 crore in the MUDA site allotment," he added. He also noted that the ED had identified irregularities in the allocation of 14 sites to CM's wife B.M. Parvathi.

Earlier, in a post on X, Vijayendra said, "Siddaramaiah is attempting to intimidate the Congress high command with a 'self-respect' rally in Hassan, but the Congress leadership does not want him to remain in power due to his involvement in the scam. As a result, they have curtailed his rally."

He further criticised the Lokayukta's investigation, expressing doubts about its integrity, while praising the ED's report for exposing the Chief Minister's 'deceit'. Despite this, Vijayendra claimed, Siddaramaiah remains undeterred, continuing his corrupt practices, likening him to former Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal's stance on not relinquishing power even if jailed.

Ustad Sreenivasannanavara Garadi Mane cries for help

188-year-old wrestling house on the verge of collapse

Ustad Sreenivasannanavara Garadi Mane on Benki Nawab Road in city.

Mysuru, Dec. 4 (SBD&VNS)- The recent rains in city have damaged one of the oldest Garadi Mane (Traditional Wrestling House) located at Benki Nawab Road in Lashkar Mohalla.

The wall of 188-year-old Ustad Sreenivasannanavara Garadi Mane collapsed yesterday while the wrestlers were practicing.

Earlier representatives of the wrestling school had sought financial aid from people representatives for the renovation works as the wall had developed cracks. However, except for an inspection of the spot no other works were carried out.

The pailwans, who practice in the wrestling house, had got the tiles of the roof replaced along with some minor works to protect the wall. With the city receiving continuous rainfall from Sunday till Tuesday, the wall collapsed.

The 'Garadi Mane' was constructed by Ustad Sreenivasanna, who had defeated wrestlers from Punjab, Delhi and other States, during 1836. The then Maharaja of Mysore, Mummudi Krishnaraja Wadiyar, had also sanctioned funds for the construction of the wrestling house.

The wall of the Garadi Mane that collapsed due to recent rains.

Renowned wrestlers like Pailwan Doddathammaiah, Channanna, Siddannachar, Chinnakrishnappa, Nagaraj among others are the products of Ustad Sreenivasannanavara Garadi Mane. Wrestlers, not only from Mysuru but also from Hubballi, Dharwad and Belagavi, have practiced in this Garadi.

Plea to save traditional wrestling houses

Meanwhile, despite long pending demand, the authorities have not made efforts conserve and preserve the traditional wrestling houses in the city which are an integral part of Mysuru's culture.

The Department of Youth Empowerment and Sports (DYES), owing to pressure from senior wrestlers, had provided some equipment apart from providing funds for minor repair works to few wrestling houses a decade ago. Since then there has been no effort to conduct surveys of the traditional wrestling houses in the city to carryout restoration works.

Elected representatives must take initiatives to conserve and preserve 'Garadi Mane' for the future generations.

Space Lab opens at Nypunya School

Former ISRO Chairman A.S. Kiran Kumar shares info about the country's key plan to build Space Station by 2035

Mysuru, Dec. 4 (PM&BS)- A first-of-its-kind Space Lab was inaugurated at Nypunya School of Excellence, Kanakadasanagar (Dattagalli) in city yesterday. The Space Lab has the models of Rocket Ron, Planetary Rover, High Tech Telescope, Binoculars, among several others related to Space Science.

Dr. A.S. Kiran Kumar, former Chairman of Indian Space Research Organisation (ISRO) inaugurated the Space Lab. The lab was set up by Navars Edutech Company. Chairman of Nypunya School of Excellence R. Raghu and Secretary R. Kautilya were present.

Addressing the gathering, former ISRO Chairman Kiran Kumar said "The country has ambitious plans to build a Space Station of its own by the year 2035, so that by the year 2040 the people can be ferried to the moon and brought back after the space tour."

Prior to the implementation of this project, it is imperative to study the conditions on the moon by sending a robot to collate the required information, said Kiran Kumar.

"Previous year, we had sent Rover named Pragyan and Lander named Vikram equipped with robotic technology to the space. The robotic technology is driven by intelligence, sensor and instructor store in the memory, totalling five subjects that form the functioning of a robot," said Kiran Kumar.

The robotic technology is the fine example of how nature inspires inventions. Like how the man understands the world through five sensory organs prompting the real intelligence to act, robotic technology also functions albeit with the help of artificial intelligence, added Kiran Kumar.

Inquisitive Students

"I am overjoyed at the sight of academic activities conducted on the campus and the inquisitive students keen to learn. Every child has a scientist in him or her, whom we should encourage to nurture the talent to achieve something big," said Kiran Kumar pointing out at the gathering.

Exhibits at Lab

The lab has been set up to introduce the students to various aspects of Space Science including the research at the school level. The models of Lander and Rover and the satellites that were launched so far have been displayed here, providing a detailed account of the realm for the students.

The model of Planetary Rover provides a peek into the robotics, engineering and space technology, which make it easier to understand the electronics technology in designing the rover.

This lab also has a model of 'Planetary Lander' that disseminates information related to Chandrayaan-3, along with the challenges associated with the research and design, for the benefit of the students.

A model of device through which those on space tour can read the time is also exhibited in the Space Lab.

A handmade telescope prepared by the students, three lens hi-tech telescope, Satellite Orbiting Earth, Sun Earth Moon Orrery are among the other prominent models on display.

The students dressed as former President of India late Abdul Kalam, a renowned Space Scientist, astronaut Sunita Williams, Nobel Prize winning Scientist Sir C.V. Raman, scientist Albert Einstein and astronaut late Kalpana Chawla attracted the gathering.

IRS Officer Shivanand Kalkeri, Principal of Nypunya School of Excellence Shantini Gerald and PRO Bhavana Srikant were present.

Adding that institutions such as NSS, NCC and Nehru Yuva Kendra have been inspiring the youth to serve the society without any expectations, Tanveer Sait said that there was a need for more such institutions to build a clean and corruption-free society.

He also lauded the State Government and DYES for organising Yuvajanotsava, which provides a platform for the youths to showcase their talents and promotes participation spirit.

The competitions were held in 11 categories including Folk Dance (Group), Folk Dance (Individual), Folk Song (Group), Folk Song (Individual), Poetry Writing, Story Writing, Painting, Declamation Writing (Hindi and English language to take part in National-level Yuvajanotsava; Kannada to take part in State-level Yuvajanotsava), Photography, Handicrafts (for artisans to contest for Yuva Kirthi), Textile and Agro Products.

More than 500 youths in the age group of 15-29 years from various educational institutions and associations across the district took part in today's event. The winners of the District-level will represent Mysuru district in the State-level Yuvajanotsava which the DYES plans to organise in Mysuru next year.

The winners in the competitions will be awarded with cash prizes, certificates and mementoes during the valedictory ceremony to place this evening.

DYES had also organised Science Exhibition under the theme 'Innovation in Science and Technology' for students at the stadium.

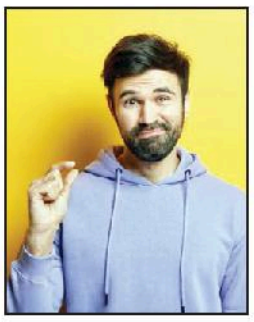
The students displayed various models showcasing their innovative skills. The competition was held in individual and team categories.

DYES Assistant Director Bhaskar Nayak, Nehru Yuva Kendra District Youth Officer Abhishek S. Savare and University of Mysore NSS Programme Co-ordinator Dr. M.B. Suresh and others were present.

MLA Tanveer Sait lighting the traditional lamp to inaugurate District Level Yuvajanotsava - 2024 held at Chamundi Vihar Stadium in city this morning as Department of Youth Empowerment and Sports Assistant Director Bhaskar Nayak, Nehru Yuva Kendra District Youth Officer Abhishek S. Savare and University of Mysore NSS Programme Co-ordinator Dr. M.B. Suresh and others look on.

WORD OF THE DAY

Scintilla



Pronunciation: sin-TIL-uh (Noun)
Meaning: A scintilla is a very small amount of something. Scintilla is usually used in negative statements, as in "not even/nary a scintilla."
Origin: Wonder what scintillas (or scintillae) are? It may help spark your memory to look up above the world so high at the tiny (to our eyes) stars twinkling like diamonds in the sky. Scintilla comes directly from Latin, where it refers to a spark—that is, a bright flash such as you might see from a burning ember (the noun scintilla is related to the verb scintillare, which means "to sparkle" and is responsible for the English verb scintillate meaning "to sparkle or gleam"). In the 17th century, English carried over this "glittering particle" sense, which is still in use today, as when Scottish writer Rudi Zygadlo wrote of the Gulf of Mexico "fizzing with scintillas underneath the rising sun." In the same century, people also began using scintilla figuratively for a hint or trace of something that barely suggests its presence. Today this sense is much more common, and especially found in negative statements, such as "We have not a scintilla of doubt that you are now humming 'Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star.'"
Example: "... there was one part of his Irish childhood that would follow [Oscar] Wilde across the sea to England. A tiny part of his childhood, admittedly. The merest scintilla of his youth." — Alexander Poots, The Strangers' House: Writing Northern Ireland, 2023

THE ODD WORD

Dendrophobia
Fear of trees.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Strike while the iron is hot

Meaning: The phrase 'Strike while the iron is hot' indicates to take advantage of the circumstances.
Origin: This phrase is from the 15th century – It's based on the time when the blacksmith worked with the iron while it was still hot.
Example: "It's best to place your bid while the iron is hot or else you will never win the bid."

QUOTE BOX

Courage is found in unlikely places. —J.R.R. Tolkien
